

The filing of an Information is the formal accusation of a criminal offense made by a public official. The purpose of an Information is to inform the accused of the charge against him, so that the accused will have an opportunity to prepare a defense. If an Information is not filed or the defendant waives the filing of an information, the case will proceed with the charges as stated on the citation.