PLEAS: You may plead: a) not guilty; b) not guilty by reason of insanity; c) guilty with a mental illness at the time of the offense; d) guilty; or e) with the court's approval, no contest (a no-contest plea means you do not challenge the charge; it is still a conviction).

RIGHTS:

- 1) You have the right to be represented by an attorney. The court will appoint an attorney at no cost to you if: a) you cannot afford attorney; and b) there is the possibility of a jail sentence for the offense. Later, you may have to pay for the appointed attorney's service if the court determines you are able to do so.
- 2) You have the right to represent yourself. If you do so, the court cannot advise you on how to handle your case, and you will be required to comply with technical legal rules. There may be disadvantages to proceeding without an attorney. For any future hearing, you must: a) represent yourself; b) hire an attorney; or c) if you cannot afford an attorney, request a court-appointed attorney by filing an affidavit at least 10 days before the proceeding. Failure to exercise option b or c will be treated as an implied waiver of your right to counsel.
- 3) You have the right to a speedy public trial before an impartial jury. If you want a jury trial, you must make a written demand at least 10 days prior to trial. You are not entitled to a jury trial if you are charged only with an infraction.
- 4) You have the right to confront and cross-examine the prosecution's witnesses in open court.
- 5) You have the right to call witnesses and compel by subpoena their attendance and testimony. If you cannot afford to pay for the attendance of witnesses, the government will pay those costs.
- 6) You have the right to testify on your behalf. Any statement you make may be used against you. You may refuse to testify, and no one can make you testify or give evidence against yourself. Your refusal to testify cannot be held against you.
- 7) You are presumed innocent until: a) you plead guilty or no contest; or b) the prosecution proves you guilty. The prosecution has the burden of proving each of the elements of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt. A jury verdict must be unanimous.
- 8) You have the right to bail. If you post bail, you will be released on: a) the condition you appear in court for future proceedings; and b) any other conditions the court imposes. Bail may be modified on proper motion, notice, and findings.

If you plead guilty or no contest, these rights are waived, and your plea constitutes an admission of all the elements of the crime.

IMMIGRATION/DEPORTATION: I understand that if I am not a United States citizen my plea(s) today may subject me to deportation under United States immigration laws and regulations, or otherwise could adversely affect my immigration status, which may include permanently barring my re-entry into the United States. I understand that if I have questions about the effect of my plea on my immigration status I should consult with an immigration attorney prior to entering my plea(s).

TRIALS: Defendant recognizes and agrees that if the matter is set for trial and the defendant is voluntarily absent it will not prevent the trial from proceeding and the defendant from being tried in absentia. All motions for continuances must be filed with the court in writing at least three (3) business days prior to the trial date.

WITHDRAWAL OF PLEA / RIGHT TO APPEAL: A motion to withdraw a guilty or no-contest plea must be made before you are sentenced or within 30 days of a plea held in abeyance. To withdraw your plea, you must show it was not knowingly and voluntarily made. The right to appeal is limited. If you choose to appeal, you must file a written Notice of Appeal within 28 days of the sentence or order from which you are appealing.

SENTENCING: Sentencing recommendations are not binding on the court. The court may order the sentence to run consecutively (one after the other) with the charges in this case and with any other case.

PENALTIES (MINIMUM / MAXIMUM SENTENCES): Class B Misdemeanor (0 days to 6 months jail, $0 to $1,940 fines and surcharges, plus interest); Class C Misdemeanor (0 days to 90 days jail, $0 to $1052.50 fines and surcharges, plus interest); Infraction (no jail, $0 to $1052.50 fines and surcharges, plus interest).

COMMUNITY SERVICE IN LIEU OF FINE: You have the right to request credit against your outstanding fine balance for community service performed in lieu of fine payments. The judge will review such requests and make a determination regarding how much, if any, community service will be allowed on each case. Community service in lieu of fine payments will not be considered unless you specifically request it.

I have read and I understand the foregoing rights and instructions. I understand the charge(s) and penalties. Any plea I enter is voluntary and of my own free will and choice. No force, threats, or unlawful influence have been made to get me to plead.
