

Rules of Procedure

Small Claims:

The Utah Rules of Small Claims Procedure are the official rules/law that govern small claims procedure throughout the State of Utah.

Evidence:

The Utah Rules of Evidence are not strictly applied in justice courts, but judges may allow evidence that is of the sort commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their business affairs.