

Clearfield Police Department Value Statement

Employees of the Clearfield Police Department are committed to a set of values that guide the work of the department and thus, help contribute to the quality of life for all people. The objectives of the department are to advance the science and art of police services, promote and disseminate information on improved practices, foster cooperation among law enforcement throughout the state, bring about recruitment and training of qualified persons for police work, and to encourage adherence of all police department personnel to high standards of performance and conduct.

The adherence to and belief in these values and the promotion of professional policing will continue to distinguish the Clearfield Police Department as a truly professional department.

-
- The seal of the Clearfield Police Department is centered in the background. It is a circular emblem with a yellow and blue color scheme. The outer ring contains the text "CLEARFIELD POLICE DEPT. UTAH" and "EST. 1922". The inner circle features a shield with a scale of justice and a sword, with the motto "IN THE SERVICE OF THE COMMUNITY" below it.
- A commitment to fair and impartial enforcement of laws and ordinances, and respect for fundamental human rights
 - A commitment to advance the principles of respect for individual dignity and respect for constitutional rights of all persons with whom his/her department come into contact
 - A commitment to the highest ideals of honor and integrity, to maintain the respect and confidence of his/her governmental officials, subordinates, the public, and his/her fellow law enforcement officers
 - A dedication to innovative and participative law enforcement practices, to seek to improve the Clearfield Police Department, increase productivity, and remain responsive to the needs of Clearfield City
 - A commitment to friendly and courteous service by striving to improve communications with all members of the public at all times while seeking improvement in the quality and image of public service
 - A dedication to improve personal and colleagues' knowledge and abilities through independent study, courses, meetings, and seminars
 - A reverence for the value of human life and commitment to conduct oneself to maintain public confidence in his/her profession, the department, and performance of the public trust and without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, or any other legally protected status